Pastor eating on roof?

The Vera Church of God has started a unique Sunday School enlargement campaign.

Last month, the state overseer from Roanoke challenged the congregation to reach a goal of 100 in Sunday School. If this goal is reached before Easter, Pastor Charles Helms will have to eat dinner on the Church roof.

On March 1, this past Sunday, there were 91 present in Sunday School, only nine short of the goal. The Vera Church of God invites everybody who can possibly come to attend Sunday School this Sunday, and bring your camera.

Jazz concert set for ACHS on March 10

There will be a Jazz Band Concert at the Appomattox County High School auditorium on Tuesday, March 10 at 8:00 p.m. The concert will be performed by the "Jazz Express", eleven ACHS band students, and the "Starliters", a professional band. The public is invited, and there is no admission charge.

The program will include a variety of jazz styles in music, from "bebop", through "cool", and into "fusion". Music compositions of jazz giants, such as Miles Davis, Herbie Hancock, Sonny Rollins and others will be featured.

The "Jazz Express" is a group of band students who are extremely dedicated to musical performance and all share an interest in some form of jazz. Their participation in this jazz ensemble is not part of their regular school band program, but they rehearse after school hours and they are under the direction of Mr. Frank Coffey, Appomattox County Public Schools band instructor.

The jazz ensemble includes trumpeters, Keith Leonard and Timmy Lawson: saxophonists, Bruce Saunders and Richard Baxter; tenor saxophonist, James Bohannon, Jr.; trombonists, Kevin Jaggers and J. C. Rogers, and a rhythm section of pianist, Allen Smith; bass guitarists, Dean Hamilton and Sylvester Watkins, and drummer, David Coffey.

A special feature on the program will be music performed by the "Starliters", a professional band working in the central Virginia area. They play a variety of music from "progressive country" to "blues" and "fifties rock". The concert will conclude with the "Jazz Express" and the "Starliters" playing a special arrangement for combined bands.

Mr. Coffey performs with both bands, and he feels that the combined concert is a good musical experience for dedicated band students at the high school to perform with professional musicians in a public performance.
